

NOAA ESLR: Flood and Resilience Assessment for Pocomoke City
Work Session with the Mayor and City Council
May 26, 2026

I. Attendees

- A. Mayor Todd Nock
- B. Michael Hall, District 1
- C. Diane Downing, District 2
- D. Sharnell Tull, District 3
- E. Brooke Cottman, District 4
- F. C.L. Marshall, District 5
- G. Brandy Matthews, Pocomoke City Staff
- H. Nicole Carlozo, Maryland Department of Natural Resources
- I. Liz Van Dolah, formerly of The Nature Conservancy
- J. Joe Galarraga, formerly of The Nature Conservancy
- K. Planning and Zoning Commission
- L. NOAA ESLR Pocomoke City Community Advisory Committee (CAC)

II. Meeting Goals and Objectives:

- A. The Mayor and City Council understand the project goals, processes, findings, and proposed resilience pathways
- B. The Mayor, City Council, and CAC provide feedback and prioritize resilience pathways for future resilience efforts
- C. The Project Team receives feedback and priorities to incorporate in the final resilience pathway recommendations and updated story map

III. Agenda:

- A. Introductions (5 min.)
- B. Project overview: background, processes, and assessment results - Liz (10 min.)
- C. Overview of project deliverables and proposed resilience pathways - Nicole (5 min.)
- D. Introduction to pathway activity - Joe (5 min.)
- E. Resilience pathway ranking and feedback - Mayor, City Council, and CAC (15 min.)
- F. Open discussion and finalization of resilience pathways for project team review - Liz, Nicole, Joe (15 min.)
- G. Next steps and adjourn - All (5 min.)