Council Comments

Councilmember Downing said she has no official business but wishes that everyone is staying safe and is staying home to take care of themselves.

Councilmember Troast said she rode through her district yesterday and saw a lot of people in their yards getting sunshine. Her message is to follow the directives and get through this safely.

Councilmember Nock said it is a time to put aside a lot of bickering and pull together and we will get through this. We need to remain as the friendliest town on the eastern shore.

Interim City Manager Mason said he agrees with everyone's message and City Business is moving forward.
